

after thought

the crease and furrows of a feeling like tree rings revealing the history you just cut down to gain new ground
emotion comes after thought the silent setting of a season like questioning clock's reason whose uncertain face spins future's pace

time comes after thought the left-hand path of passion like long body portioned rations perspective of past lives planned out to the nines

after thought
zeal comes after thought the frenzied flooding of potential like realizing how essential that it's raised first in dreams those nurturing streams

wish comes after thought the sweet release of action like muscle stimulus reaction without predetermination a spirit's summation

action

when thought is an after thought
